

Nominations for the Community Wellbeing Grant Allocation Committee

Attention All Community Organisations and Individuals:

The Community Wellbeing Grant Allocation Committee consisting of community representatives and City Councillors, allocate funds from Hamilton City Council's Community Wellbeing Grant to community groups and organisations.

Nominations are called for five community representatives. These community members need an understanding of community organisations and citywide issues, representing as widely as possible various sectors within our community, including tangata whenua. The term of appointment is for three years, June 2010 to June 2012. Previous committee members may apply.

Committee members are expected to attend 2- 3 day meetings per year in May.

Nomination Forms are available from the Community Development Unit, 4th Floor, and Hamilton City Council. Nominations close on the 19th February 2010.
